

Art & History

can be found in Chiloquin. First, stop by the Twin Rivers Gallery to see what the local artists have to offer. If your tastes run to fishing, go across the street to Kirshner's Hardware to stock up on fishing tackle while others browse the gallery. You can pick up sack lunches to take with you at Pot Belly Cafe, just down the street. Then, enjoy Collier State Park Logging Museum. Afterwards, have lunch and fish at the confluence of Spring Creek and Williamson River at Collier's Day Use Area, right across Highway 97. A day trip with something for everyone!
